

Farmersville Historical Society

Preserving Our Past for Our Future

Farmersville, Texas, USA

Bain-Honaker House, Built in 1865

The Farmersville Historical Society is dedicated to the preservation and restoration of the historic Bain-Honaker House located on College Street in Farmersville, Texas; the research and participation of local Marker Programs including area cemetery markers, city markers, assisting local property owners with marker applications preserving historic properties in the Farmersville area; and, a variety of other public programs, including exhibits, publications, lectures, oral history interviews, and educational programs.

- Organized: March, 1989
- Motto: Preserving Our Past for Our Future
- Meetings: Third Monday of each Month 7:00 p.m.
- Membership dues are required by April 1, of each calendar year, annual $20./life $150.

Bain-Honaker House open for tours on the following dates:

Old Time Saturday, 1st Saturday of October, 10:00-4:00

Christmas Tour of Homes, 2nd Saturday of December, 11:00-4:00

Audie Murphy Day in Farmersville, June (date varies), 1:00-5:00

Membership Information

If you are interested in becoming a member of the Farmersville Historical Society, please contact Winnetta Morrow at 972 782-6195. Membership in the Farmersville

Historical Society is available to persons having an interest in the history of Farmersville and the surrounding area.

COME VISIT US AND STEP INTO THE PAST