III. SENIOR CITIZEN CENTER:

- A. Report from Meals on Wheels - The Collin County Community on Aging representatives Lea Poole and Eboni Crayton spoke to the board regarding staffing the Center with a volunteer. Eboni also stated they always need drivers to deliver meal, and if we have several to train Raven Carr who is the coordinator will come here to City Hall and train. Ben White also commented the Police Chief has said they would like to volunteer if needed. He also asked if the police department would have to go through the background and the answer was no that could be waived.
- B. Report from the Senior Center – Cathy Strong stated the center is doing well.
- C. Activities – Silvia Montarosa spoke to the Board regarding so craft activities she can bring for the Seniors. The arts are such as Painting, wire crafts and paper crafts. The cost of this would be around nine to ten dollars each. Miranda told her she would need to talk with the seniors and ask if they would be interested and the best time to go to do that would be on Thursday morning before or after Bingo. The Board agreed this would be a great thing to get started understanding that not everyone would join in.
